

Business and Non-Instructional OperationsIncome*Tuition Fees

Tuition fees shall be charged of all non-resident students accepted into enrollment in the Watertown Unified School District, except as hereinafter provided.

Non-resident students will be accepted on a tuition basis only if District enrollments permit. Tuition charges shall be based upon audited operational and building costs for the current school year, using formulas established by the State Department of Public Instruction.

Summer School

Tuition for the summer school program for students residing outside the Watertown Unified School District shall be for materials and fees per session in an amount to be decided upon by the Board. Students will be accepted on a tuition basis only if District enrollments permit.

Waiver of Tuition Fees

Tuition may be waived for a non-resident student based upon a letter from his/her parents indicating their intent to become residents of the Watertown Unified School District. Such tuition will not be waived beyond two grading periods.

Tuition may also be waived by the Board for non-resident students in hardship cases, wherein the primary purpose of moving to the Watertown Unified School District is not to attend school.
