

StudentsWelfare*Suspension and Expulsions

Students who violate school rules, disrupt the educational process or the teaching and learning environment of the school and/or attempt to encourage others to do so may be suspended and may be referred to the Board with a recommendation for expulsion; and may be referred to civil authorities for prosecution. This includes, but is not limited to, damage of school property, threats to personal safety, assaults, conduct that restricts or limits school activities and the learning environment, or violates school rules.

No student shall be suspended or expelled without due process. Furthermore, the Watertown Unified School District does not discriminate in rules of behavior or disciplinary measures, including suspensions and expulsions.

The rules and regulations governing suspensions and expulsions in the Watertown Schools shall be in compliance with state and federal law.
