

Business and Non-Instructional OperationsAuxiliary Services*Late Bus Service

It shall be the policy of the Watertown Unified School District to provide for late bus service under the following conditions:

- a. Sufficient funds are available in the annual budget.
- b. A limit of two buses of the most economical sizes available shall be provided.
- c. Buses shall be scheduled and routed in such a manner as to accommodate the greatest number of students in the most expedient manner.
- d. Ridership on said buses shall be sufficient to warrant the cost of providing the service.
- e. Service shall be limited to those students participating in school-sponsored and supervised extracurricular activities, or other school-approved activities. Students serving detentions shall not qualify for late bus service.

Rules implementing this policy shall be drafted and implemented by the Director of Business Services. Documentation of need and utilization of the late bus service shall determine its continuance.
