

StudentsActivities*Work-Based Learning Programs

The Watertown Unified School District recognizes the value of learning that can be achieved outside the formal classroom setting. The District therefore shall provide students with the opportunity to participate in work-study, cooperative and other work-based learning programs, both within and outside the school building.

The Board will strive to support these programs under the philosophy that such programs will improve the educational opportunities for District students.

Student participation in work based learning programs shall be in accordance with established procedures.
