

New Construction*Financing*Periodic Computations during Construction

During the period of construction, the Superintendent, and/or designee, with the assistance of the architectural firm, shall make periodic cost computations and shall keep the Board informed of the status of the construction project budget including any significant change order that could affect the total cost.

Policy Approved:                    September 23, 1987

Policy Revised:                    January 23, 2017